Report on participation in 6th Faculty Development Program (FDP) on Computer Aided Drug Design (CADD-2023) organized by Centre for Advanced Computational Chemistry Studies, Delhi from 17th –23th February 2023 via Online Mode.

The FDP was conducted by Dr. Nikhil Aggarwal. The Hands-on-Training program included 7 Interactive Sessions on Computational Studies of Molecular Docking and Dynamics via Standard Software packages including AutodockVina, Pymol, Autodock MGL Tool, SPDBV, Gromacs and VMD. During these sessions the participants were introduced to Drug Discovery CADD, CADD Software Tools Installation, Structure based Drug Design and process layout of Docking, Protein file preparation, Ligand file preparation, Setting grid parameters and Docking parameters, Setting and executing the calculation and Building protein-ligand complex and visualization. The FDP was extremely useful to the participants.

ATAL Faculty Development Programme (ATAL-FDP) on

Laboratory Safety: Pitfalls and Remedies

Venue: Online and offline mode

Date: 2022-10-10 to 2022-10-15 (online) & 2022-10-17 to 2022-10-21 (offline)

Eleven days online and offline faculty development programme was organized by Institute of Chemical Technology (ICT) Mumbai, for the above mentioned period. This FDP was sponsored by AICTE-ATAL. The theme was Laboratory Safety: Pitfalls and Remedies. Following aspects were covered during various sessions of the FDP. General aspects of safety in lab, safety during construction of lab, MSDS of chemicals, labelling to chemicals, places of chemicals, American and European guidelines for fuming hood, categories of chemicals- explosive, flammable, corrosive/toxic and so on. Dr. Shrirang Joshi said about compatibility and storage of chemicals- mixing of chemicals together etc. Toxicity aspects of chemicals were covered by Dr. P. S. Kharkar. He highlighted toxic and harmful chemicals, factors on which toxicity depends, why some chemicals are more and some are less toxic?, chemicals entering into human body, whether all toxic chemicals cause mutations and so on. Prof Sadhana Sathaye in her speech included but not limited to this- how to dispose microorganisms, reaction and interaction, carcinogenic chemicals etc. Mr. Vijay Bhujle discussed hazards, their classification, identification of hazards, severity if hazards, transportation of chemicals and care to be taken during transportation, handling of chemicals and specially handling of corrosive substances. Case studies on industrial safety was the topic for discussion of Dr Rashmi Ranjan. She discussed many cases happened in the chemical industry and the take home message of that case study. Mr. Suhas Wani highlighted the responsibilities of the employer, employee in detail with bifurcation. He discussed some cases during COVID pandemic. Mr. Nitin Nimkar discussed on waste management, FIFO, LIFO, JIT and guidance from Mantralaya on disposal of waste, ways of disposal of waste, handling of waste, biological waste, chemical waste, microbiological waste etc. It was an eye opening experience for every participant regarding how we need to be careful in day to day life even it looks very easy to handle the chemicals. The FDP was partly online and partly offline. The QA session at the end of the every sessions was wonderful in providing a lot of information with different aspects on the theme of this FDP. During offline session, practical aspects were add-on the theoretical background discussed so far. Many doubts were cleared during the practical sessions. handling fuming hood, identifying hazards, using protective clothes, writing instruction on the bottle of the chemicals were some practical approaches.

"Emerging trends in Phyto-Pharmaceutical Research "

Date- 11th March to 28th May 2023

Organized by : Dr. D. Y. Patil Institute of Pharmaceutical science and research, Pimpri, Pune

Attended By- Dr. Mohini C. Kuchekar.

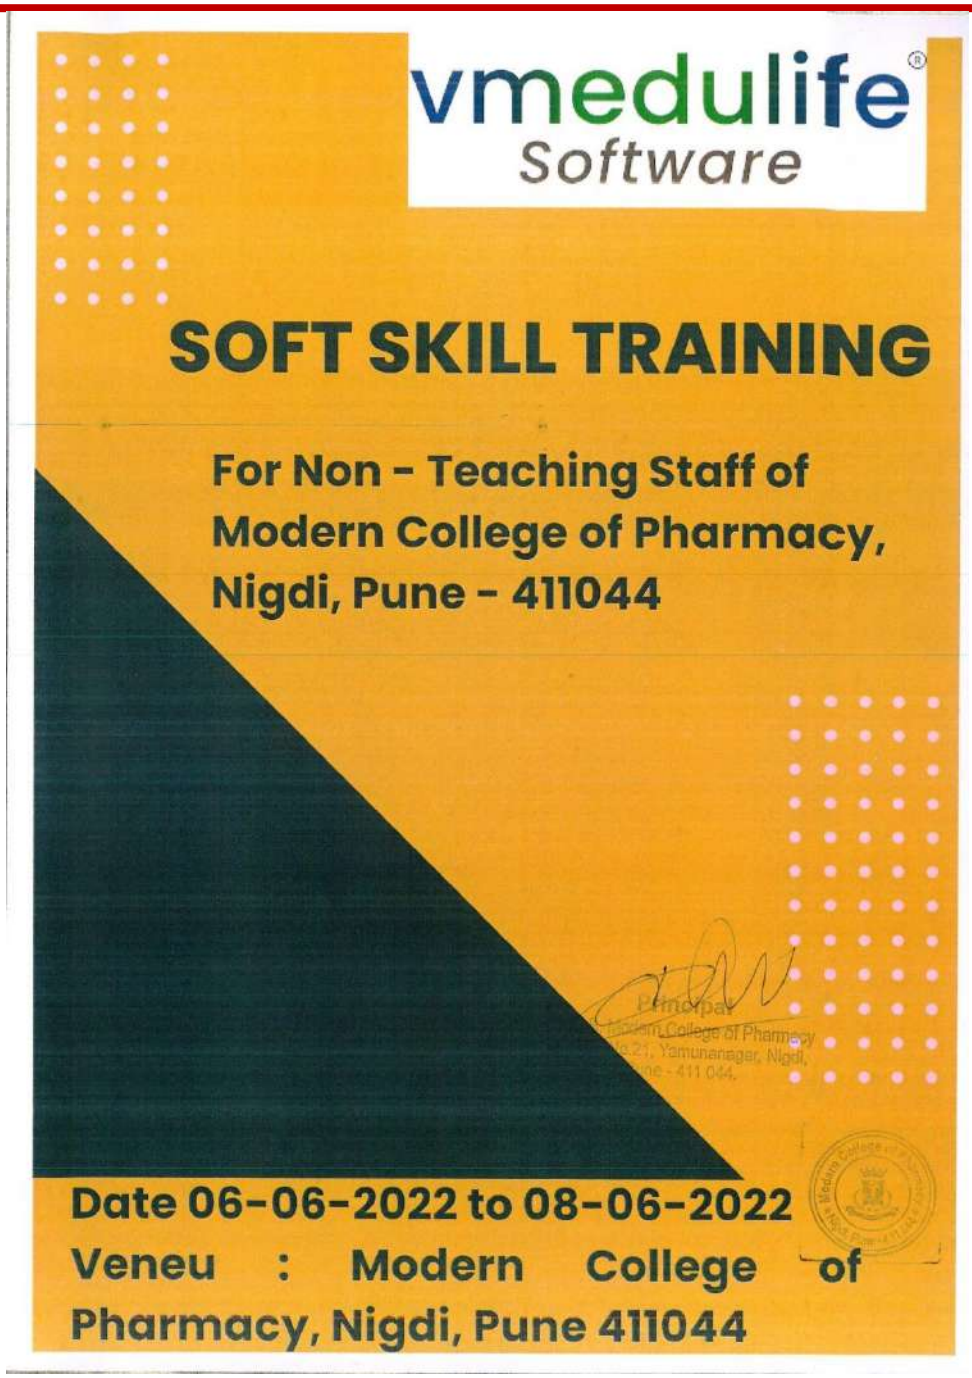

Dr. D. Y. Patil Institute of Pharmaceutical Sciences and Research, Pimpri, Pune hosted the 3rd International FDP on "Emerging trends in Phyto-Pharmaceutical Research" with the major objective of promoting the niche segment of Phytopharmaceutucal development in India. The inaugural function was held on 11 March 2023. The function was inaugurated by the Chief Guest and Key note Speaker Dr. D. B. A. Narayana, Chief Scientific Officer, Ayurvidye Trust, Bangalore and Member Domain Expert Group, CSIR Mission Project on Phytopharmaceuticals, GoI. During the inaugural address, Dr. Sohan Chitlange, Principal of the DPU Pharmacy and CEO, Dr. D. Y. Patil Unitech Society expressed his views on the National Education Policy and the challenges for Higher Education institutes in India. Dr. Asha Thomas, IFDP coordinator presented an overview of the program, it's objectives and process of conduct. Dr. D. B. A. Narayana addressed the audience in his introductory remarks about the potential and scope of phyto-pharmaceutical research, detailing how it might result in the creation of novel CDSCO approved drugs for the treatment of severe and chronic disorders. Sir also cited various successful examples of marketed botanical formulations developed by USA and also in pipeline for launch in India by CSIR and other national Institutes. Dr. Narayana also emphasized on the need for cross and multi functional integration amongst faculties from different domains to bring phytopharmaceuticals to the forefront. Dr. V. Addepalli, Research Director of DPU pharmacy presented the concluding remarks summarizing the highlights of the session. The various topics were shared by experts from 11 March to 28 May 2023 through the virtual platform. It was really very motivating programme. It was truly informative and helpful session to all participants.

'Lab Animals in Bio-Medical Research'

Date: 21st to 27th Sept 2021
Organised by: College of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Parbhani
Report submitted by: Dr. (Mrs.) D.D. Bandawane

Seven days online training programme was organized by Dept of Animal Genetics and Breeding, College of Veterinary and Animal Sciences, Parbhani during 21st to 27th Sept. 2021.

The scientific session started with Dr. SSYH Quadri on topic "Lab Animals in Biomedical Research: Global Scenario". He discussed utility of various laboratory animals in current research scenario. Dr. C.G. Raut elaboarated on various CPCSEA guidelines that should be implemented for laboratory animals. Dr. Mrunal Ghag discussed the various aspects of laboratory animals with respect to introduction, handling and restraining of laboratory animals.

Dr P.V Nandedkar talked about various standard operating procedures for Institutional Animal Ethics Committee. Dr Ramanamurthy Bopanna discussed regarding breeding and supply of laboratory animals particularly rodents. Dr. M. Jerald Mahesh Kumar enlightened on health monitoring protocols of laboratory animals with special reference to FELASA guidelines. Dr. S Ramesh elaborated on basic statistics to be applied to animal study data. He also pointed out importance of sample size determination.

Dr. Rahul Thorat emphasized the importance of recognition and alleviation of pain and distress in laboratory animals. Dr. Jayant Hole discussed the different trends in generation of transgenic animals, methodology, breeding management and its applications.

Dr. Parikshit Deshmukh discussed about compliance in preclinical or non-clinical laboratory studies. Dr. Sagar Chavan discussed about the development of rodent models for human disease with transgenic technology. Dr. P. Nagarajan explained immunodeficient and mutant mouse models used in biomedical research. Dr. A. P. Somkuwar discussed the OECD guidelines and emphasized the use of laboratory animals in regulatory toxicology. Dr. Siddhanath Metkari had a talk on breeding and management of non-human primates. Dr. K.N. Kohale discussed about zebrafish model in biomedical research.

Dr. Vikas Dighe elaborated the toxicity testing studies and stem cell research. Dr. Shanmugapriya talked about zebrafish in medical research with particular focus on neurobehavioural and histopathological studies. Dr. Yogesh Murkunde elaborated on reproduction and developmental toxicology study in laboratory animals. Dr. Pallavi Jamdagni discussed about animal model validation and its applications. Dr. Uddhav Chaudhari elaborated on the longitudinal trajectories of metabolic syndrome in non-human primate model. Dr. C.N. Galdhar had a talk on laboratory animals, biomedical research and veterinary nuclear medicine.

The national training programme was concluded by valedictory function.

"Stress Management: A Key for Personal & Professional Excellence" from 18/10/2021 to 22/10/2021
Modern College of Pharmacy, Sector 21, Yamunanagar, Nigdi, Pune 411044.

AICTE has commonly organized the inauguration ceremony for 14 workshops across the nation. The workshop was inaugurated by Prof. Rajbir Singh, Vice Chancellor, Maharshi Dayanand University, Rohtak, chief guest for the 'Inaugural Ceremony' and Prof. M.P. Poonia, Vice- Chairman AICTE was the guest of honor for the session. Smt. Mamta Rani Agarwal Adviser-I coordinated and hosted the session.

Day 1:
Speaker: Mr Neeraj Gera
Topic: Stress Management Techniques
Gera sir discussed definition of stress, causes of stress and ways to overcome it.
Mr Viveck Dobn
Topic: Stress management: Transectional meditation
One of the techniques to overcome stress is meditation. Different examples, short stories, incidents, live videos were exhibited to manage the stress in our life. Live meditation session for 20 minutes was conducted and its impact was experienced by all the delegates.
B. K. Sarita Rathi
Topic: Calm in crisis
Sarita Rathi madam discussed about the main causes and factors of the stress. Her main focus behind the discussion was how to maintain the calmness in the crisis. She discussed about the importance of rajyoga techniques and how improves the self-confidence with such technique. She guided all about myths of the stress and how to overcome the stressful situations.

Day 2:
Speaker: B. K. Akanksha.
Topic: Easy Meditation for Busy People
She discussed simple meditation methods for people with busy schedule. In addition to this she discussed Raja Yoga meditation
Speaker: Shreya Thakar.
Topic: Physical Activities: Key to Effective Stress Management
She discussed about stress and how exercise can be useful as a coping strategy for stress management and improving mental health in people with chronic diseases.
Speaker: Dr. Sairaj Patki
Topic: "Understanding stress & Tackling it"

Back to Index

He discussed about level of stress and performance. He explained about acute and chronic stress and its effect on body. He explained how our brain controls the hormonal level and how hormonal changes are related with mood swing. He took various activities and exercise that helps to stress relives.

Day 3:
Speaker: Dr. Aruna Kulkarni
Topic: Positive thinking to overcome stress
Dr. Aruna explained the concept of stress, different types of personalities and their attitude towards dealing with the stressful situations.
Speaker: Dr. Aruna Kulkarni
Topic: Assertiveness as a way of maintaining stress.
Dr. Aruna discussed about different types of personalities such as Type A, Type B and Moderate Types of A & B. She explained us the reasons behind the stress of these personalities and their styles of dealing with it or coping up with it.
Speaker: Dr. Rajeev Nagarkar
Topic: New normal.
Dr. Nagarkar gave us a definition of 'New normal' and connected us with the concept of freedom and the responsibilities that come along with it. Dr. Nagarkar told us the importance of synchronization of body functions. He made us realize the importance of balance of health and discussed different concepts related to the same e.g., Bramhacharya.

Day 4:
Speaker: Dr. Shradha Sakatkar
Topic: Coping Strategies for stress
Dr. Shradha Sakatkar discussed about various coping strategies like*Appraisal focused strategies* in that ABC technique, STC technique, Car model, positive reinterpretation
Speaker: Dr. Sonali Nipate
Topic: Cause, Effects and treatment for stress
She spoke on solutions to come out of stressed situation and how we can reduce or avoid stressed situations. She detailed on Chronic Fatigue Syndrome its Causes, risk factors, symptoms, diagnosis, medications, some home remedies, lifestyle changes and diet hacks for Chronic Fatigue Syndrome.
Speaker: Mrs. Archna Aggarwal
Topic: Alternative Healing: To Destress Body and Mind
Mrs. Archna Aggarwal highlighted on Alternative Therapies and the basic principles behind Therapies

Day 6:
Speaker: Monica Bansal
Topic: Power of Subconscious Mind
She has discussed ways by which subconscious mind controls all body activities. She also explained that our personality is our perception.
Speaker: Dr. Udichi Kataria
Topic: Know your Mind: It matters

She has explained importance of knowing your mind and various tendencies of mind like doubting the positive things in life and keep oscillating in past and future, so it is necessary to put ourselves in positivity and present. Also she elaborated various sources of energy like food, sleep, breath, happy and calm mind.

Valedictory function: Hon. Dr P. R. Patil Regional Officer, South Central Region, AICTE, Hyderabad was invited as a chief guest for the valedictory ceremony. Principal Dr P. D. Chaudhari and Dr P. R Patil shared their valuable thoughts and delivered motivational address.

Overall, this FDP was very useful for the participants,

Short Term Training Programme on "Computational Tools for Pharmaceutical Development"

(June 28 to July 03, 2021

This STTP was organized by Manipal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Manipal Academy of Higher Education, Manipal and AICTE and sponsored by AICTE. It was conducted online on Microsoft Teams.

Day 1:

The program was inaugurated on 28th June 2022. The keynote address was given by Prof. Bhupiender Singh BHoop, Professor, Department of Pharmaceutics, Panjab University, Chandigarh. Dr. Bhoop introduced us to Emerging Computational Paradigms: Pivotal Role in Systematic Development of Drug Products.

Prof. Versha Parcha, Professor, Department of Chemistry and Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Dolphin (PG) Institute of Biomedical & Natural Sciences (DIBNS), Dehradun, Uttrakhand discussed about Traditional versus Rational Drug Design. Prof. Parcha explained how drug designing can be done in a rational manner and how computational tools can help it.

Dr. Devendra Kumar Dhaked, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacoinformatics, National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research (NIPER), Kolkata discussed basic concepts of Tautomerism, Handling of Tautomerism in Chemical Databases and Its Importance in Drug Design.

Dr. Ruchi Verma, Assistant Professor (Selection Grade), Department of Pharmaceutical Chemistry, Manipal College of Pharmaceutical Science, Manipal, Karnataka gave an insight into various in-silico Studies in Development of New Molecules.

Day 2

Dr Sudharsan Pandiyan, Principal Scientist I, Schrödinger, Inc., Bengaluru discussed how pharmaceutical formulations can be developed using Molecular Simulations.

Prof. Prasad V Bharatam, Professor, Department of Medicinal Chemistry, National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (NIPER), Mohali, SAS Nagar provided a new framework for dsign of anti Alzheimer's disease. He discussed application of 3D Thinking in the Design of Anti-Alzheimer's Agents.

Dr Anupam Nath Jha, Assistant Professor, Department of Molecular Biological & Biotechnology, Tezpur University, Assam elaborated Experimental and Theoretical Approaches for Sequence, Structure and Function of Pharmacological Targets.

Dr Jayeeta Bhaumik, Scientist-D, Center of Innovative and Applied Bioprocessing, Department of Biotechnology, Govt. of India, Mohali, gave an interdisciplinary talk on Development of Agro-biomass based Functional Materials and how softwares can be utilized to maximize the Research Outcome.

Day 3:

Dr. Sanjay Boldhane, Associate Vice President, F&D, Micro Labs Ltd., Micro Advanced Research Centre (MARC), Bengaluru explained drug dissolution from solid dosage forms using kinetic models and simulation softwares.

Dr. Sarwar Beg, Newton International Fellow, School of Pharmacy & Biomedical Sciences, University of Central Lancashire, United Kingdom gave details about attaining Biowaiver and Product Development Excellence using IVIVC.

Dr. Shaila Angela Lewis, Associate Professor (Senior Scale), Department of Pharmaceutics, Manipal College of Pharmaceutical Sciences, Manipal, Karnataka introduced us to different simulation Softwares to Optimize Formulations.

Dr. Arthi Venkatesan, Scientific Specialist, Altem Technologies Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru demonstrated Molecular Dynamic Simulation using BIOVIA Discovery Studio

Day 4:
Dr Sajeev Chandran, Director, Advanced Drug Delivery Research & Biopharmaceutics/ IVIVC, Pharmaceutical R & D, Lupin Ltd., Pune discussed IVIVC Modelling & how simulations can improve Predictiveness of In Vivo Behaviour of Pharmaceutical Formulations
Dr. Ridhima Gaunkar, Assistant Professor, Goa Dental College & Hospital, Goa, described applications of statistics in Pharmacy. She elucidatewd use of parametric and Non-parametric test, Correlation, Regression, and Sample Size Determination.
Dr. S. Raja, Associate Professor (Senior Scale), Department of Chemical Engineering, Manipal Institute of Technology, MAHE, Manipal, demonstrated application of Design of Experiments as a tool for Optimization.
Mr. Venkata Suhas, QbD Scientist, Dr Reddy's Ltd., Hyderabad gave an insight into concepts of Quality by Design (QbD) in Pharmaceutical Formulations Development

Day 5:
Dr. Ashwin Kuchekar, Associate Professor, School of Pharmacy, Dr. Vishwanath Karad MIT World Peace University, Pune threw light on Six Sigma in Pharmaceuticals.
Dr. Kunal Pal, Associate Professor, Department of Biotechnology and Medical Engineering, National Institute of Technology, Rourkela, Orissa explained how Computational Tools can be utilized for understanding the Effect of Food on the Vital Organs.
Dr Nitesh Kumar, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmacology & Toxicology, National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education & Research (NIPER), Hajipur described study of Toxicokinetics & Toxicodynamics of Compounds using Computational Tools.
Dr. Praveen Kulkarni, Computational Scientist, Center for Translational Neuroimaging, Northeastern University, Boston, MA, discussed preclinical MRI Data Analysis and its Application in Drug Development

Day 6:
Dr. Dhivya Shanmugarajan, Sr. Application Scientist, Altem Technologies Pvt. Ltd., Bengaluru explained Toxicity Assessment of Compounds using Machine Learning – BIOVIA Discovery Studio and Pipeline Pilot.
Dr. Subham Banerjee, Assistant Professor, Department of Pharmaceutics, National Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (NIPER)-Guwahati, Assam, explained Pharmacoengineering: A New Frontier in Cutting-Edge Translational Pharmaceutical Research
Dr. Amar Upadhyaya, Assistant Professor, Department of Education, Dibrugarh University, Assam spoke about Higher Education and National Education Policy 2020
The lectures were followed by the Valedictory Programme

At the end of all the sessions participants had to appear for an assessment. Based on the scores obtained, participants were allotted credits and grades. I received 3 credits and "A" grade.

Six days online Short-Term Training Programme (STTP) on Developing excellence in research and academic leadership: Opportunities and challenges

Venue: Online

Date: 21st June to 26th June 2021

Six days online short-term training programme was organized by Marathwada Mitra Mandals College of Pharmacy, Kalewadi, Pune during the period 21st June to 26th June 2021. This STTP was sponsored by AICTE. The theme was Developing excellence in research and academic leadership: Opportunities and challenges.

On Day 1, Dr Suneela Dhaneshwar, after inauguration, highlighted threat to research integrity, publication ethics and possible threats, don'ts of researchers during publications etc. She elaborated very precisely. Second session was continued by Dr Jayant Khandare on drug delivery in cancer studies. He spoke on liposomal drug delivery in cancer therapy, its potential and future aspects. He spoke very simple and lucid way. The third speaker of the day, Dr Pravin Wakte elaborated blossoming the future academic leadership. He has highlighted current and future challenges for academic leadership. He has very critically explained the concept of academic leadership and ways to come forward in the future. Day 2 started with Dr. Ravindra Purohits talkl on hurdles and opportunities in industry institute interaction and ways to forward by institute. This was an excellent evidence full presentation. Further, Dr Mukul Jain continued the session with his views on how to build good quality in research. This was very exhaustive talk. In the last session, Dr. Pokharkar Varsha explicitly expressed her views on creative problem solving and research. She has given online exercise to participants. This was really an eye opening session. On Day 3 morning, Dr Ravindra Ghooi was the speaker. He told on new molecules-bigger the better. He clearly told inductrial case studies. The role of modern technology with special talk on artificial intelligence was the topic of discussion of Dr. Anil Pethe. Dr. Dada Kokare elaborated hierarchy of personnel's in research lab. Day 4 started with an excellent interactive session by Dr K. S Jain. On green chemical techniques of synthesis. Dr. Jaiprakash gave a view on scientific wrting and publishing in high impact journals. Dr. Supriya Shindhaye spoke on developing research and innovation ecosystem. On Day 5, Dr Subhedar, an excellent researcher, elaborated art and science of writing manuscripts. Dr. Sunil Dhaneshwar spoke on developing academic leadership and challenges ahead. Dr. Vandana Patravale gave her view on translational research- a gap analysis. On Day 6, Dr. Sarajit form NIPER, Dr. V K Mourya and Dr. Anant Paradkar were the speakers. Indeed, the whole programme was articulated very nicely.

Safety drug monitoring and transition of care: The brink of an artificial intelligence (AI)

Venue: Online

Date: 27th to 31st July 2021

AICTE sponsored five days' online faculty development programme was organized by Raghavendra Institute of Pharmaceutical Education and Research (RIPER), Anathapuramu for the period 27th to 31st July 2021. This FDP was sponsored by AICTE-ATAL. The theme was Safety drug monitoring and transition of care: The brink of an artificial intelligence (AI).

On Day 1, An inauguration function was stared at 9.15 am followed by keynote address of Dr S Eswara Reddy, Joint Drugs Controller, CDSCO. The session 1 started at 9.30 am by Dr. Bikash Medhi on drug discovery and artificial intelligence (AI). He spoke on terminologies in drug discovery and basic concepts of drug discovery which bridges to AI. Plenary session 2 was continued by Dr Sourabh Kosey. He told about concept of AI, types of AI, their uses including advantages and disadvantages and repurposing of drugs, level of evidence and some case studies of repurposing. Day 2 started with the session by Dr. Guru Prasad Mohanta. On pharmacovigilance recommendations to CDSCO. Session 2 by Dr G Narayana and session 3 by Dr. Manasa Kondamadugu drugs. She elaborated applications of AI and old and new perspectives of AI. Day 3 started with session 1 by Dr. V. Saritha on pharmacovigilance and AI. She has opened up new avenues of AI associated with pharmacovigilance. Session 2 and session 3 were delivered by Dr Chakka Gopinath and Dr. P. Venkata Krishna for case studies on the basis of software. These were highly advanced sessions on AI. On Day 4, first session was delivered by Dr. Rajeshwari R J followed by Dr. Kruthika K R. Both these speakers have delivered software based AI. Their sessions were really eye opening. The session 3 was delivered by Mr. Sandeep Kumar on career opportunities in AI. Session 4 was delivered by Ms. Pranita Niraj Palsapure. She in her speech, highlighted on insights in healthcare. On day 5, Dr Vivekanandan Kalaiselvan elaborated future of AI with day to day life examples including applications of AI in research. Lastly, Dr. Mohanraj Rathinavelu delivered a talk on development of AI in India and in the world. He gave a look on comparative study. The test was conducted after valedictory function.

REPORT

Successfully completed ATAL sponsored Five days Faculty Development Program on "Stress Management: A Key for Personal and professional experience" organized by PES Modern College of Pharmacy, Nigdi, Pune, conducted from 18th to 22nd October 2021.

Stress is part of human, and it can help motivate you to get things done. Even high stress from serious illness, job loss, a death in the family, or a painful life event can be a natural part of life. Gera sir discussed definition of stress, causes of stress and ways to overcome it. Doba sir stated the causes of stress, symptoms of stress and ways to overcome it. Sarita Rathi madam discussed about the main causes and factors of the stress. Her main focus behind the discussion was how one can maintain calmness in critical situation. The first session on topic "Easy Meditation for Busy People "by B. K. Akanksha sister. Spirituality, thus, deals with understanding the nature of the Soul and one's journey back to identifying with the Soul and experiencing it as one's true nature. Spirituality is the expensive science about how to be blissful, joyful, peaceful, successful, balanced and meaningful life.Stress can be defined as any type of change that causes physical, emotional, or psychological strain. Stress is our body's response to anything that requires attention or action. An informative session was conducted by Dr. Sairaj Patki on Understanding stress & Tackling it. He discussed about level of stress and performance and also about acute and chronic stress and its effect on body very nicely and briefly. Dr. Aruna explained the concept of stress, different types of personalities and their attitude towards dealing with the stressful situations. Dr. Aruna discussed about different types of personalities such as Type A, Type B and Moderate Types of A & B. Nagarkar sir started the session with the "Manache Shloka", and this was a start of a wonderful spiritual approach towards dealing stress. Dr. Nagarkar gave us a definition of 'New normal' and connected us with the concept of freedom and the responsibilities that come along with it. EVENT BROCHURES AND REPORTS
ACADEMIC YEAR 2020-21

STRIVING TOWARDS EXCELLENCE FOREVER

A Report on One-month online Faculty Development Programme (FDP) (MOOC Course) on Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching-Learning

Venue: Online.

Date: 8th June to 7th July 2020

One-month online faculty development programme (MOOC Course) was jointly organized by Modern College of Pharmacy Nigdi Pune and Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India (APTI) from 8th June to 7th July 2020. The theme was Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching-Learning. This was delivered online through gnomio moodle. In the background of lock-down period, this online FDP bags extra and special importance. Week 1 was highlighting on challenges of 21st century education, how to overcome these, blooms taxonomy, learning styles, active-passive learning, effective teaching practices and modern pedagogical tools, creation of visual presentation and power point presentation. Week 2 covered creation of online resources viz online teaching and its components, presentations using animations, creating videos by different software, content management system (CMS), creating wordpress website and creating blogs etc. Week 3 extensively covered moodle as learning management system (LMS)-creation of gnomio course and features of gnomio site that can be used in the course, adding resources and quiz into the course, awarding certificates, badges and gamification in moodle, creation of google form and online exam, google classroom and its features and use in content delivery. Week 4 has extensively covered digital and advanced pedagogy in this free software tools for online teaching, creation of effective e-contents, digital students response system-mentimeter, plickers, kahoot, creation and conduction of quiz and event, creation of real time quiz and implementation of modern tool in teaching learning progress. In all 4 weeks, after completion of module, learning by doing (LbD) was an activity reflecting on leaners learning. All videos around 65, were really enjoyable and fantastic. The quality of contents, way of presentation was really amazing. At the end of each week, assignments were given. All assignments were nothing but the real practice of doing and applying what is learned in that week. Around 8 different resource persons/ speakers have delivered their e-contents through moodle site. Attending this FDP was really a great experience to go ahead with information and communication technology. Today's ICT is tomorrows future. It is the need of the hour to learn, to do and to apply these ICT tools and concepts in teaching-learning process. The valedictory function was held online on 11th July 2020. Around 1633 participants were enrolled in this course.

Report

Four week online FDP
on
'Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching – Learning'

Four weeks online FDP (MOOC) course on "Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching - Learning" was jointly organized by P. E. Society's Modern College of Pharmacy, Pune and Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India (APTI).

Throughout the course, various sessions were conducted by resource persons including Dr. Remeth Dias, Dr. Kuldeep Bansod, Dr Vivek Kahale & Dr. Chaitali Pawar.

Week 1 of the course dealt with various effective teaching practices. It revealed various pedagogical challenges of 21st Century Education. It was helpful to know how to apply Bloom's Taxonomy levels for achieving higher learning outcomes. Sessions related to the use of active learning strategies in classroom teaching and their use for improving the retention percentage in students was very interesting. Few sessions gave an input regarding how to differentiate students with different learning styles. The most important session of week 1 included guidance regarding use of various tools of PowerPoint for creation of effective Power Point presentation.

Week 2 of the course dealt with various ways of creation of online resources. It revealed various methods for online learning by designing learning resources and including components of online teaching. It was helpful session as it included information about creation of reflection spot and creation of video resources by using PowerPoint, Screencast-O-matic and Videoscribesoftwares. The session also helped in buiding the knowledge about creating our own WordPress website and also its customization, modication and managing the contents of the same.

Week 3 of the course dealt with Moodle as learning management system. It included the aspect regarding choice of learning management systems based on their requirements. The session was very important as it taught the various aspects of Moodle including creation of our own Gnomio Moodle Course for the subject, enrolling the students to the created course, adding various activities and resources. The session also covered adding blocks like file, page, URL, game, quiz with restriction access & activity completion criteria in the same course besides awardingthe badges & certificates to the learners in the course. Besides Moodle platform, the session included

carious aspects of google classroom including creation of google classroom, uploading assignments, ppts, videos on it and creation of google form for assessment of students.

Week 4 of the course dealt with digital & advanced pedagogy. It included aspects of advanced digital pedagogy for creating e-learning resources using various online free software tools available including Mentimeter, Plickers and Kahoot. It was an important session as it helped us for creation of online platforms for discussions, quizzes or conducting webinars.

Overall the four week course was extremely helpful in current situation and in future as well for implementing the modern pedagogical techniques for online teaching or in the classrooms.

Four week online FDP
on
'Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching – Learning'

Four weeks online FDP (MOOC) course on "Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching - Learning" was jointly organized by P. E. Society's Modern College of Pharmacy, Pune and Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India (APTI).

Throughout the course, various sessions were conducted by resource persons including Dr. Remeth Dias, Dr. Kuldeep Bansod, Dr Vivek Kahale & Dr. Chaitali Pawar.

Week 1 of the course dealt with various effective teaching practices. It revealed various pedagogical challenges of 21st Century Education. It was helpful to know how to apply Bloom's Taxonomy levels for achieving higher learning outcomes. Sessions related to the use of active learning strategies in classroom teaching and their use for improving the retention percentage in students was very interesting. Few sessions gave an input regarding how to differentiate students with different learning styles. The most important session of week 1 included guidance regarding use of various tools of PowerPoint for creation of effective Power Point presentation.

Week 2 of the course dealt with various ways of creation of online resources. It revealed various methods for online learning by designing learning resources and including components of online teaching. It was helpful session as it included information about creation of reflection spot and creation of video resources by using PowerPoint, Screencast-O-matic and Videoscribesoftwares. The session also helped in buiding the knowledge about creating our own WordPress website and also its customization, modication and managing the contents of the same.

Week 3 of the course dealt with Moodle as learning management system. It included the aspect regarding choice of learning management systems based on their requirements. The session was very important as it taught the various aspects of Moodle including creation of our own Gnomio Moodle Course for the subject, enrolling the students to the created course, adding various activities and resources. The session also covered adding blocks like file, page, URL, game, quiz with restriction access & activity completion criteria in the same course besides awardingthe badges & certificates to the learners in the course. Besides Moodle platform, the session included carious aspects of google classroom including creation of google classroom, uploading assignments, ppts, videos on it and creation of google form for assessment of students.

Week 4 of the course dealt with digital & advanced pedagogy. It included aspects of advanced digital pedagogy for creating e-learning resources using various online free software tools available including Mentimeter, Plickers and Kahoot. It was an important session as it helped us for creation of online platforms for discussions, quizzes or conducting webinars.

Overall the four week course was extremely helpful in current situation and in future as well for implementing the modern pedagogical techniques for online teaching or in the classrooms.

4weeks online FDP MOOC course on
Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching-learning
Duration: June 8 to July 7, 2020
Report by: Dr. Smita Pimple

First week: The online lecture videos covered various pedagogical challenges of 21st Century education, Bloom's Taxonomy levels for achieving higher learning outcomes, different active learning strategies in classroom teaching, different learning styles, and effective teaching practices. In the first week exhaustive elaboration was made on effective use of various tools of PowerPoint for creation of presentation. The task 1 was about creating a good ppt by following all tips and guidelines suggested.

Second Week: in this week Resource persons dealt with online learning. They stressed upon creating Reflection spot in ppt to engage students online and also suggested to incorporate learning by doing activity. Various video making softwares were explained such as PowerPoint, Screencast-O-matic and Videoscribe. Creation of wordpress website and modification and management of website content is well covered. Use of screencastomatic software to make video was displayed as a submission for task 2.

Third Week: This week was all about studying learning LMSs (MOODLE) and various facilities offered by LMSs like creation of course, enrolling the students to the created course, addition of various activities, resources and blocks like File, Page, URL, Game, Quiz with restriction access & activity completion criteria awarding of the badges & certificates to the learners in course etc.
Task 3 was about creating course and assigning online activity to students.

Fourth week: this week was about learning advanced resources available online useful in evaluation and sought feedbacks from students. Digital student response systems like Mentimeter, Plickers and Kahoot were described. Creation and use of online platforms for discussions, quizzes or conducting webinars were discussed in detail which would definitely be helping us a lot in current situations.
In Task4 online activity and feedback from students was tried using Testmoz and Mentimeter

It was a lifetime experience to attend this kind of FDP. This program has given opportunity to learn advanced pedagogical techniques .This is going to be a turning point in present pandemic situation. This FDP has equipped teachers with various tools to convey more profusely subject knowledge to students.

Effective Use of ICT Tools in Teaching Learning

from 8th June to 4th July 2020

This workshop was jointly organized by Modern College of Pharmacy and APTI. The resource persons were Dr. Remeth Dias, Head of Department, Government College of Pharmacy, Karad, Dr. Kuldeep Bansode, Department of Pharmacy Govt college of Pharmacy, Jalgaon, Dr. Prashant Argade, Department of Pharmacy Govt college of Pharmacy, Jalgaon and Dr. Chaitali Pawar, Department of Pharmacy, Govt college of Pharmacy, Jalgaon.

The course was organised into four modules. During this workshop the resource persons introduced different concepts and tools for Transforming teacher-centered passive teaching learning (TL) process to student-centered active TL process, tools for effective teaching practices in the classrooms, modern and innovative pedagogical tools, enhancing student engagement through interactive and collaborative learning and improving learning outcomes through the use of learning management systems, blended teaching, and digital pedagogy.

Study material was provided for each of the module. The participants were engaged during the entire course duration with interactive contact programs, self-study and application of concepts in their teaching/assessment practices, submission of assignments online, and microteaching presentations and peer review.

The MOOC FDP provided a strong platform to realize the roles of teacher, evolve as a conscientious and committed teacher and infuse their learners with passion and commitment to become competent in our professional performance.

Online refresher course in pharmacy for higher education (ARPIT)

Venue: Online

Date: Dec 2020 to March 2021 (12 weeks)

A twelve weeks' online refresher course in pharmacy for higher education (ARPIT) was completed from Dec 2020 to March 2021. This was online course through video lectures and PPTs. The course was run by IIT Banaras Hindu University (BHU). The course coordinator was Dr. M. S. Muthu from IIT BHU. The online course has been designed and developed by National Resource Centre (NRC) of Pharmacy at the department of pharmaceutical engineering and technology, IIT BHU under annual refresher programme in teaching (ARPIT). The course had contents of variety of interest for teachers of undergraduate and postgraduate.

The content of the course was defined week wise. Week 1: Regulatory aspects of pharmaceuticals with focus on US market-part 1, part 2; week 2: nanomedicine- drug delivery & targeting part 1 and part 2; packaging aspects of pharmaceuticals-part 1 and part 2; week 3: osmoregulated novel drug delivery systems-part 1 and part 2; week 4: computational drug design- concept, methods and applications-part 1 and part 2; week 5: pharmacological experiments-image analysis-part 1 and part 2; week 6: structure based drug design,-hydrolase targets-part 1, part 2 and part 3; week 7: Understanding bioavailability and pharmacokinetics-an innovative way of teaching; week 8: preclinical evaluations-pharmacological screening models for therapeutic targeting of pain ; week 9: drug discovery-modern methods for studying protein-ligand interaction-part 1, part 2 and part 3; week 10: modern analytical tool in drug discovery- LC-MS applications in drug discovery part 1, part 2; week 11: formulation development- polymeric nanoparticles for tuberculosis-part 1 and part 2, colon targeting drug delivery- opportunity and challenges; week 12: drug discovery-role of bioluminescence imaging in preclinical study-part 1 and part 2, prodrug concepts and applications-part 1, part 2 and part 3. The contents- videos and study materials were available for self-learning and were available online. The reading material was available at the end of the respective week. The discussion was carried out in forum. Assignments were submitted weekly. All the contents were of great use and value adding and motivating for attendee to study further. Course contents are outlined with this report.

Report of ATAL Faculty Development Program

Title	4 Weeks online FDP (MOOC) on "Effective use of ICT in teaching-learning"
Date:	08/06/2020 to 7/07/2020
Time:	9:30 am to 5:30 pm mooc mode
Venue:	Online platform
Organized by:	APTI and Modern College Of Pharmacy nigdi Pune
Sponsor by:	AICTE Training and Learning (ATAL) Academy
Attended By:	Dr V V Chopade
Objective of workshop:	Transforming teacher-centered passive teaching learning (TL) process to student-centered active TL process. Equipping teachers to utilize effective teaching practices in the classrooms. Empowering teachers with modern and innovative pedagogical tools. Enhancing student engagement through interactive and collaborative learning. Improving learning outcomes through the use of learning management systems, blended teaching, and digital pedagogy.
Summary of workshop	This is an online FDP (MOOC) course jointly organized by P. E. Society's Modern College of Pharmacy, Pune, and Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India. This course has been designed for empowering teachers with modern pedagogy, List of details topic is attached

Report of Quality Improvement Programme On Applications of Machine Learning in Drug Discovery & Development (Division of Pharmaceutical Chemistry)

Title	Applications of Machine Learning in Drug Discovery & Development (Division of Pharmaceutical Chemistry)
Date:	31st May – 5th June, 2021 "
Time:	9:30 am to 5:30 pm mooc mode
Venue:	Online platform
Organized by:	Department of pharmaceutical sciences & technology (ugc-sap & dst-fist supported department) Birla institute of technology, mesra-835215, ranchi (jharkhand)
Sponsor by:	AICTE
Attended By:	Dr V V Chopade
Objective of workshop:	The use of these virtual screening and encompassing online information has also been highlighted in developing lead synthesis pathways. The applications are having promising effect in the field of drug discovery. During this program machine learning and deep learning algorithms utilization in drug discovery and associated techniques will be discussed
Summary of workshop	Development of new drugs is a time-consuming and costly process. Indeed, in order to ensure both the patients' safety and drug effectiveness, prospective drugs must undergo a competitive and long procedure. With the advancements of information technology and related processing techniques have created a fertile base for research progress in many scientific fields and industries. In the fields of drug discovery and development, machine learning techniques have been used for the development of novel drug candidates. The methods for designing drug targets and novel drug discovery now routinely combine machine learning and deep learning algorithms to enhance the efficiency, efficacy, and quality of developed outputs. The generation and incorporation of big data, through technologies such as high-throughput screening and high through-put computational analysis of databases used for both lead and target discovery, has increased the reliability of the machine learning and deep learning incorporated techniques...

A Report on One-month online Faculty Development Programme (FDP) (MOOC Course) on Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching-Learning

Venue: Online.

Date: 8th June to 7th July 2020

One-month online faculty development programme (MOOC Course) was jointly organized by Modern College of Pharmacy Nigdi Pune and Association of Pharmaceutical Teachers of India (APTI) from 8th June to 7th July 2020. The theme was Effective use of ICT tools in Teaching-Learning. This was delivered online through gnomiomoodle. In the background of lock-down period, this online FDP bags extra and special importance. Week 1 was highlighting on challenges of 21st century education, how to overcome these, blooms taxonomy, learning styles, active-passive learning, effective teaching practices and modern pedagogical tools, creation of visual presentation and power point presentation. Week 2 covered creation of online resources viz online teaching and its components, presentations using animations, creating videos by different software, content management system (CMS), creating wordpress website and creating blogs etc. Week 3 extensively covered moodle as learning management system (LMS)-creation of gnomio course and features of gnomio site that can be used in the course, adding resources and quiz into the course, awarding certificates, badges and gamification in moodle, creation of google form and online exam, google classroom and its features and use in content delivery. Week 4 has extensively covered digital and advanced pedagogy in this free software tools for online teaching, creation of effective e-contents, digital students response system-mentimeter, plickers, kahoot, creation and conduction of quiz and event, creation of real time quiz and implementation of modern tool in teaching learning progress. In all 4 weeks, after completion of module, learning by doing (LbD) was an activity reflecting on leaners learning. All videos around 65, were really enjoyable and fantastic. The quality of contents, way of presentation was really amazing. At the end of each week, assignments were given. All assignments were nothing but the real practice of doing and applying what is learned in that week. Around 8 different resource persons/ speakers have delivered their e-contents through moodle site. Attending this FDP was really a great experience to go ahead with information and communication technology. Today's ICT is tomorrows future. It is the need of the hour to learn, to do and to apply these ICT tools and concepts in teaching-learning process. The valedictory function was held online on 11th July 2020. Around 1633 participants were enrolled in this course.

On the day four, the sessions were delivered by Speakers with their expertise knowledge in different fields of effective teaching, learning pedagogy and research skill development.

The first Speaker of the day fourth is Dr. Vandana Patravale from Institute of Chemical Technology, Mumbai, India, delivered the session on Strategies for Effective Research Grant Writing. Mam has elaborated valuable information to researchers who are seeking for applying grant from National/ International funding agencies. While writing a proposal for research, one should focus on points includes being specific, identify collaborators (optional), Know your audience, be up-to-date, follow guidelines. One should identify the needs along with the budget while designing the research proposal as- Research hypothesis, Availability of Resources, need for manpower, Devising time-based goals, Projected outcomes. Mam has ended her talk with a case study which cleared all doubts of theoretical aspects.

The second Speaker of the day fourth is Dr. Ashok Kumar Panda from Research Officer (Ayurveda), CARIHD, Bhubaneswar, delivered the session on Scope of Pharma Professionals in AYUSH. Sir has focused on- Arena of Ayush research which includes Government- Research institute, pharmaceutical industry, Hospital, Medical colleges, Private- Dabour research foundation, Patanjali, Drug testing Laboratories, Hospitals, and Consultancy services.

The third Speaker of the day fourth is Dr. Remeth Dias from Govt. College of Pharmacy, Karad, Maharashtra, delivered the session on Tools for Effective Teaching-Learning Process. The session was focused on the use of pedagogical techniques as Behavioral- focuses on behavior modification, Cognitive- processing and transmission of information, Constructive- Hands-on, self-directed activities leading to design, Activity based- framework of activity and Experimental-Experience as a foundation for learning. All these techniques help to improve teaching and learning methods for involvement of students. The session was ended with an interactive quiz video.

At the end of each session of fourth day of the STTP, Mrs. Shital Patil summarized the informative sessions given by all the three speakers of the day and informed the delegates about the schedule on Day five.

Date: 9th April 2021 (Fifth Day)

On the day five, the first Speaker is Dr. Sharad Pawar, Assistant Director (Pharmacology) at Central Ayurveda Research Institute (CARI), Kolkata. delivered the session on Scope of Pharmacy & veterinary postgraduates in AYUSH research. Dr. Sharad Pawar discussed about AYUSH and different branches of it including CCRAS (Central Council for Research & Ayurvedic Sciences. Different disciplines in CCRAS, different posts available at CCRAS and qualifications required for it. He also discussed different facilities available at CCRAS laboratories and its subunits for proteomics, metabolomics, and genomics studies. He discussed few case studies related to diabetes treatment. He also guided about the differences between Ayurvedic plants and medicinal plants.

The second Speaker of the day five is Dr. Nilesh Gaikwad, Assistant Director (Pharmacology) at Central Ayurveda Research Institute (CARI), Kolkata. Delivered the session on Pomegranate for food, pharmaceutical & cosmetics. Dr. Nilesh Gaikwad discussed about Pomegranate's utilization for food, pharmaceutical & cosmetics. He emphasized on increasing export of pomegranates and increasing need for research in storage and stability of Pomegranate and its products. As Pomegranate has properties useful in the treatment of CVS, anti-inflammatory, anticancer, skin health, reproductive health, dental health so he discussed the opportunities for pharmaceuticals in Pomegranate research. He also discussed about juice, RTS beverages, seed oil, peel powder, wine, ice-cream, mouth freshener and Anardana (Dried Arils) products he developed in his premises. He also gave a review of machineries he developed for manufacturing of these products and difficulties he faced in developing the same. He discussed different opportunities and challenges for food, pharmaceutical & cosmetics research with Pomegranate as the main ingredient.

At the end of each session of fifth day of the STTP, Dr. A. R. Balap summarized the informative sessions given by all the two speakers of the day and informed the delegates about the schedule on Day six. The quiz has assigned by a PMC committee of STTP at the end of day fifth for the participants.

Date:10th April 2021 (Sixth Day)

On the day Six, the first Speaker is Dr. Shubhada Nagarkar, from Department of Library and Information Science, Jayakar Library, Savitribai Phule Pune University, Pune, Maharashtra. Delivered the session on "Predatory Journals". Madam discusses on academic journal and open access journal. Madam has focus on points includes Creative Common License (Copy right form), Research measures Criteria (Impact factor, h- index), Bogus citation, Types Predatory journal, Characteristics of Predatory Journals and Consequences of Predatory journal. Madam has elaborated on Criteria to be checked journal. This session is very informative.

On the day Six, the second Speaker is Dr. Rupesh Chikhale, from University College London School of Pharmacy London, UK, Delivered the session on "Basics of Research Publication(s) and the scope of Impact Factor". Dr. Rupesh Chikhale highlighted structure of scientific paper, research article and review article. Dr. Rupesh Chikhale briefly described how to publish research work in higher impact factor and well reputed journals. The quiz has assigned by a PMC committee of STTP at the end of every day STTP slot II for the participants.

Indeed, at the end of the Six-day sessions the Institute succeeded in proving its objective and motto of "Striving towards success forever" by generating the enthusiasm in the participants an urge to explore the insights of the subject. Successfully completed Webinar on "Foundation Course in Educational Methodology" a course of study offered by APTI and conducted by Dr. Munir Ahmed R. in May 2020.

Following were the outcomes of Webinar

The Foundations of Teaching for Learning programme is for anyone who is teaching, or who would like to teach, in any subject and any context - be it at institute. Assessment is an essential and crucial component of the curriculum of all faculties. It is an integral part of learning and one of the tools used to help students in their learning progress. It also is considered to be an important point when rating faculties by accreditation bodies. Therefore, it is essential when talking about education to cover assessment.

Colleges and schools of pharmacy vary in the extent to which they prepare student pharmacists for careers in academia. Advanced pharmacy practice experiences were the most common method of training offered. Standardization of training for academia may better promote this career path to student pharmacists.
